AFA publishes the AFA Strategic Plan 2024-2027

Capacity building, collaboration, and collective voice are keys to advancing the accountancy profession in ASEAN

JAKARTA, 4 March 2024 – Following a successful implementation of the AFA Strategic Plan 2020-2023 Leveraging Our ASEAN Connection, Strengthening the GLOBAL Network, AFA published the AFA Strategic Plan 2024-2027 Towards the Golden Jubilee: Advancing the Accountancy Profession in ASEAN (the “Plan”).

The Plan serves as a roadmap to grow capable, innovative, and resilient PAOs of the ASEAN Member States, develop a relevant and reputable accountancy profession in ASEAN, and build a strong and more sustainable AFA as a regional grouping. It consists of priorities and key activities anchored on our new Vision and Mission that represent AFA’s commitment to continuous improvement through capacity building, collaboration, and representation.

Under the Plan, AFA will continue to prioritise capacity building of the ASEAN PAOs through strengthening of connections with the relevant stakeholders. As a representative of the accountancy profession in ASEAN, AFA will continue to present the collective voice of the profession and contribute to the global advancement of the profession on current issues such as adoption and implementation of international standards, sustainability, and digital transformation (technology).

The Plan will be executed under the leadership of President Professor Dr. Doan Xuan Tien of the Vietnam Federation of Accountants and Auditors (2024-2025) and the Institute of Indonesia Chartered Accountants (2026-2027).

“The AFA Strategic Plan 2024-2027 reflects our collective aspirations for AFA and the accountancy profession in ASEAN, as we move towards our 50th anniversary in 2027. I am truly inspired to embark on this journey to implement the Plan, together with our member organisations, partners, and stakeholders.” said President Tien.
