AFA announces the departure of Executive Director Pratama

A new chapter begins: The imminent change in executive leadership marks a new era for AFA in advancing the accountancy profession in ASEAN

JAKARTA, 20 March 2024 – AFA announces the departure of Mr. Aucky Pratama from his role as Executive Director (ED) of the Federation, effective 31 March 2024.

ED Pratama has been an integral part of AFA for more than a decade, contributing significantly to AFA's growth and success. He has played a prominent role in strengthening AFA's position as the umbrella organisation for the Professional Accountancy Organisations of the ASEAN Member States and an important stakeholder in the global accountancy profession.

During his time with AFA, ED Pratama has played a key role in growing the Federation's membership to now 21 member organisations, representing a network of more than 2 million accountants, members, and students around the world. His vision and dedication have been instrumental in positioning AFA as a leader in the advancement of the accountancy profession in ASEAN.

"AFA plays an important role in representing the voice of the stakeholders of the accountancy profession in ASEAN in the global development of the profession as we navigate through the changing business landscape. My appreciation to AFA for the opportunity to serve and grow with the Federation and to the member organisations for their support throughout my journey with AFA. I believe that AFA will continue to grow and become a prominent stakeholder in the global accountancy profession." said ED Pratama.

"As we bid farewell to ED Pratama, we express our heartfelt gratitude for his unwavering commitment and exceptional service. We appreciate his valuable contributions and wish him well for his future endeavours." said President Tien.

AFA looks towards the future with excitement and anticipation and looks forward to announcing the appointment of the new AFA ED.
